Find out why the locals love regularly snacking on hot, salty Belgian fries by trying some yourself. Enjoy a quick tour of one of our favourite local shopping streets, then have a taste of some traditional Dutch sausage. Next on the menu is puffed-up pancakes, an absolute must during any stay in Amsterdam. As your pancakes digest, we'll take a stroll around the Spui neighbourhood in the centre of town where more treats await. We just love to fill you up on this tour, so please make sure you come hungry!

Your Amsterdam foodie adventure will end at a distillery that dates back to the 17th century, where you can hear tales of its history and sip spirits and other traditional drinks. Even though your tour is over, there's still plenty to enjoy in Amsterdam. Why not relax in a nearby café, admire art in a gallery, explore a museum or hang out in a bar? Before you go, don't forget to ask your expert local guide for tips on what else to see, do and most importantly, eat, during your time in the city.
