Bilbao

Tour Snapshot

Art, culture, and a craft beer combine for a look into the creative side of Bilbao. The addition of the Frank Gehry-designed Guggenheim Museum may be an integral part of the city's cultural landscape, but there was already an important artistic movement happening in Bilbao before its arrival. The city is becoming more and more well known for its creative art scene, including some amazing street art - and you'll have a chance to see this transformation up close, with a local leading the way.

Highlights

- Discover the amazing street art located throughout the city by local and international artists
- Be surprised visiting spaces such as churches that are now venues for concerts and exhibitions
- Taste some of the city's best craft beer at a local cultural centre engaged in the social movements happening in the area
- Learn about the transformation of neighbourhoods like San Francisco and Bilbao La Vieja
- Immerse yourself in the multicultural neighbourhood of Bilbao La Vieja and see first-hand the diverse cultural movements happening there as a result of municipal initiatives or led by locals themselves

Inclusions: Local English-speaking guide, 1 pint of craft beer, snacks.

Exclusions: Additional food and drinks, souvenirs and personal shopping, tips/gratuities for your guide.

Full Itinerary

Your tour begins in front of Concordia Train Station, close to the boundary between the Old Town, the Ensanche area, and Bilbao La Vieja, the most popular area during the Industrial Revolution. Nowadays, Bilbao La Vieja is an open-minded, multicultural, and dynamic neighbourhood undergoing a huge transformation.

After visiting Marzana Dock, we will enter the heart of the neighbourhood to observe the huge change that has taken place here. The once drab-area is now home to many works by local and international artists, which can be seen on sides of buildings, on bridges, and many other spaces which your guide will point out to you as you walk.

Many cultural spaces, such as Bilbaoarte and Sarean, are driven by the neighbourhood community, and are the real engine behind the area's transformation – something that will be highlighted throughout this tour in order to better showcase the social changes being spearheaded by locals.

We also visit Sagrado Corazón de María Square, the epicentre of commercial life in the area, and location of many multicultural festivals. This is also where we'll stop for one of the best craft beers in the city. The tour ends after our beer, but don't forget to ask your guide about what else to see and do in Bilbao.
