Full Itinerary

Enjoy a private foodie tour, as we embark on a fun and eclectic adventure around Cincinnati's hippest neighborhood, Over-the-Rhine. Your private food and art tour will begin with a taste of a local diner's signature waffles, along with your choice of a cappuccino, latte, or tea.

Next up, we'll take a stroll to view a multitude of colorful murals created by the award-winning non-profit organization ArtWorks, which employs and trains local youth and talent to create art and community impact through various avenues, including an extensive mural program. Here you'll also get a glimpse into the past as this area is home to the nation's largest collection of 19th-century Italianate architecture.

Along the way, you'll hear about the amazing revitalization of the area as you're led through Washington Park — one of the city's most beautiful urban parks, filled with gardens and featuring a National Historic Landmark.

Having gained an appreciation for this intriguing neighborhood, it's time to refuel. You'll get to taste the flavors at a favorite local hang-out and munch on a delicious artisan flatbread while sipping your choice of craft beer, glass of wine or soft drink.

Finally, we'll hop on the sleek and modern streetcar for a short ride to our final destination, Rookwood Pottery, where you'll learn about the history of this award-winning company that dates back to the late 1800s, and observe the craftsmen at work.

Our tour will end here, but don't worry; your streetcar ticket is good for the remainder of the day so you're free to explore more of the city at your leisure. Don't forget to ask your guide about what else there is to see, do, and eat in this fascinating city!
