Full Itinerary

Your private tour will begin with a visit to Dubai's oldest building, the Al Fahidi Fort which has been converted into Dubai's premier museum. This is a great place to begin our tour as it will give you a chance to learn about the history of the United Arab Emirates and what life was like before the oil discovery that changed its destiny forever.

From history to shopping, next we'll hop into a water taxi (known as an abra) to cross Dubai Creek from Bur Dubai to the Deira side to visit the famous spice and gold market.

Your local guide will be able to help you with the obligatory haggling with stall owners and point you in the right direction of the best quality products as we stroll around the souk, soaking in its exotic atmosphere.

From the old-style way of shopping to the new, your next stop is the world's biggest mall, where we'll spend half an hour exploring its many highlights, such as the aquarium, water fall, ice rink and the dancing fountain where you will visit the Burj Khalifa, the world's tallest building. The lift will take you to the 125th floor where you can admire stunning city views of Dubai and beyond.

The Dubai Mall boasts a tonne of tasty food options, so next, we'll stop for a bite to eat (not included) at a restaurant, café or fast food joint of your choice.

After you have replenished your energy, we will head over to Palm Island, the biggest man-made island in the world, which we will discover by monorail. The island is home to a vast array of elegant buildings and fancy architecture and is the location for one of the world's biggest and most well-known hotels, the Atlantis.

Our final stop will be at Dubai Marina, This is a great opportunity to get closer to and take photos of some of the city's most impressive skyscrapers, such as the Infinity Tower, which is the most twisted tower in the world and the Princess Tower which is the tallest residential tower in the world at 413 metres.

After Marina photo stop we'll drive you back to your hotel after an action-packed day of sightseeing! Before you go, don't forget to ask your local guide for tips on what else to see and do during your stay in glamorous Dubai.
