Full Itinerary

Take to the streets and the waterways to discover the charm of one of Vietnam's most loved towns. On this unique boat and bike tour in Hoi An you will escape the hustle and bustle, weaving through the backstreets to reach the country lanes that lie outside the town's borders.

Start your Hoi An tour with the bike portion, and follow country laneways to reach some of the villages that are dotted throughout the region, stopping to talk to the locals and learn more about life in this part of Vietnam. We will cycle to a farming area called Tra Que Vegetable Village, which supplies organic veggies for all of Hoi An and nearby areas.

Pass emerald rice paddies, snaking waterways and plenty of waving children as you discover some of the beautiful landscapes found in this region. On the way, we also stop for a drink to cool off from the heat.

Next up, your Hoi An boat tour! Follow your guide to the banks of the Thu Bon River to take to the waterways and discover even more of the area. Cruise along the river while enjoying a barbecue feast that awaits on board. Enjoy local specialties and watch as the sun sets over the river, with bobbing local fishing boats adding to the atmosphere.

Relax and watch the last of the sun's rays disappear behind the rice paddies before heading back to Hoi An. See the twinkling lights of the city appear as you approach the dock, before heading through the bustling waterfront crowds to head back into town. This unique Hoi An bike and boat tour comes to an end back in the heart of the town.
