Private Krakow: Home Cooked

Tour City

Krakow

Tour Snapshot

What? You haven't tried Polish food? It may not be as famous as some other country's cuisines (we're looking at you Italy!) but it's just as delicious. Join this private Krakow tour to get an inside guide to cooking Polish food in the home of a local home cook.

This tour is priced for a minimum group size of two travellers. A solo traveller may still book this private experience but will be charged the base rate for two travellers.

Highlights

- Become a pierogi-making machine!
- Learn to make authentic Polish food, such as pierogis and placki, with a local cook in your own personal cooking class
- Shop for fresh vegetables and produce at the buzzing Saturday market
- Try out your Polish language skills and haggle with the market sellers
- Experience an authentic Polish family home and meal-time traditions and conversations

Local Impact: How you will help the local community by joining this tour:

- At the beginning of your tour you will visit a local farmers' market which is located off the beaten path, where you will have a chance to learn some Polish as you shop, which provides a great opportunity to interact with local vendors and respect their language and traditions.
- Your tour also supports local vendors who wouldn't have access to tourists without Urban Adventures. In addition, your tour promotes regional products like oscypek (a local sheep's milk cheese produced by the highlanders in the Tatra Mountains) and traditional circle bread from Krakow.

Inclusions: Local English-speaking local guide and cook, all the products and utensils for cooking, water, tea, coffee.

Exclusions: Items of a personal nature, other drinks, tips or gratuities for your guide.

Full Itinerary

Wanna learn how to make pierogis like a pro? Or try your hand at whipping up some Polish placki? Come with us on this private Krakow food tour and you'll learn how to cook up a storm in the kitchen just like the locals do!

You'll meet your local guide just outside the centre of the city, showing you a different side to Krakow right from the start. You'll go shopping with your guide on this Krakow markets tour through a bustling local market, and get all the insider info on the fresh vegetables and produce for sale along the way. Your guide will even be able to teach you some expressions in Polish if you wish, so that you can barter at the market like a true Krakow native!

Next on this private Krakow tour you'll be taken to a family home, where you'll be able to put all that delicious fresh produce to use and get some cooking lessons from Krakow locals. You'll be taught how to make a pierogi, a typical Polish dish (kind of like a dumpling), or prepare a placki, which is a kind of Polish potato cake. Whilst you're cooking you'll have the chance to listen to traditional Polish classical, folk, or rock music, just to set the scene perfectly for your authentic cooking experience.

Finally, you'll be able to enjoy the fruits of your labour and tuck into all the Krakow food you've been making. As you'll be eating with a Polish family, this will also be your chance to ask all those questions you have about Polish culture, and your hosts will be very happy to teach you all about their country. Eat, drink, and be merry – Krakow style!
