Full Itinerary

This Las Vegas food tour is certain to be one-of-a-kind. In fact, the food experience here is unique to The Strip and can't be replicated anywhere else. Why? Because there's no place like the Las Vegas Strip and eating here connects us to the sights, sounds and energy that only the Vegas Strip can bring. Our mission here is to challenge the way we think about (or don't think about!) food in Las Vegas. Join us for a truly meaningful Vegas food experience.

Your food adventure begins at a replica for one of the world's top global gastronomic hubs – the New York New York hotel. Just like NYC, Las Vegas has really made a name for itself in recent years as a culinary hotspot every foodie should have on their radar... and today you'll find out why!

Your first taste of Vegas will highlight the global and cultural influence that has seen the Strip really up its culinary game. Who ever thought that you could find the best sushi, a modern food hall and authentic New York-style pizza all under the same roof in the Nevada desert?! We bet Frank Sinatra didn't!

As we stroll the famous Las Vegas Strip, your guide will talk about the brand culture that's so prevalent in the city. Your next stop will feature some famous food or drink brand-related magic; marveling at towering candy sculptures; drinking the foreign equivalents of well-known soda brands, or even witnessing a taco-lover's dream wedding. The choices are (almost) endless.

Next, we head toward one of the most elegant and stylish properties on The Strip, The Aria. The Aria, with a reputation for amazing art, will be our next stop for food, and you will get to know first-hand how Las Vegas takes food presentation and food artistry to an entirely new level. Get your cameras ready and enjoy a pastry or dessert here... it will look almost too good to eat.

Image is everything in Vegas, and, as we head toward our next foodie stop at The Cosmopolitan, your guide will tap into why and how the food scene makes us feel special, glamorous, and downright cool. Enjoy the flavors of a tasty plate of nachos, a spring roll, or you guides' favorite snack as you learn why celebrity chefs flock to The Strip, and why designers are competing to create an unforgettable atmosphere here.

No food experience on the Strip is complete without eating (or drinking) in a truly creative space or with an epic view. Creativity defines The Strip, and for our final stop, we might enjoy a cocktail with a view (or served by a robot bartender), or we could stumble into a 'secret' speakeasy inside a luxury hotel. Perhaps we may take you to a Vegas-style beer garden or some other dynamic creative space (a 4-story bar designed to look like a champagne flute perhaps...). Ultimately your guide will find the perfect finale to this one-of-a-kind food tour.

Your tour ends in the late afternoon, perfect timing if you need a power nap after all that gorging. Before you go, don't forget to ask your guide for more tips on what else to see, do and eat during your stay in Las Vegas.
