Ready for the ultimate day out in Las Vegas? This tour combines two of our favorite Vegas experiences (Only on The Strip: Las Vegas Food Tour, and Neon Happy Hour & Fremont Street Experience) for one epic adventure on The Strip!

Your food adventure begins at a replica for one of the world's top global gastronomic hubs – the New York New York hotel. Just like NYC, Las Vegas has become a culinary hotspot – and you're about to find out why!

Your first taste of Vegas will tap into that global and cultural influence the city has become known for. Who ever thought that you could find the best sushi in the country, a modern food hall, and authentic New York-style pizza all under the same roof?

As we stroll the famous Las Vegas Strip, your guide will talk about the brand culture that's so prevalent in the city. These brands know Vegas is the perfect city to showcase their favorite products with unparalleled imagination, which might include towering candy sculptures, sodas from other countries, or a taco-lovers dream wedding.

Next up, you'll enjoy a bite or two at one of the coolest spots on The Strip before moving on to try some of the most creative food in town – a place where art and presentation take center stage.

At your next stop, it's all about unique and creative spaces. We may visit a Vegas-style beer garden, enjoy a drink with an epic view, or even check out a 4-story bar designed to look like a massive champagne flute!

You'll then jump in a taxi, Uber, or rideshare and head from The Strip to Downtown Las Vegas for some happy hour fun!

We'll start at the El Cortez, a classic hotel and casino originally built in 1941 and with a deep connection to the mafia presence in old Las Vegas. If your guide decides to take you inside for your first drink, you're in for a treat.

Next, you'll turn down East Fremont Street where everywhere you look, you'll see the glow of neon lights. We'll stop for a drink amidst the area's bars, breweries, pop-up art installations, classic Vegas icons, and some of the best people-watching in the world!

As you pass under the massive of lights of Fremont St., your guide will share the history behind some of the classic neon signs you'll see along the way.

As part of your happy hour experience, you'll enjoy a couple of drinks and a delicious snack with your guide. After drinks (or possibly with drink in hand), we'll pause for a few minutes for a spectacular light show on the canopy strung above the street: the Fremont Street Experience.

At the end of your tour, there are so many options to continue your epic night in Downtown Vegas. Feel free to ask your guide for some more local recommendations.
