Full Itinerary

Ready to get up close and personal with one of Mexico's most popular sports? It's going to get exciting!

Our unique Mexico City tour (say that ten times fast!) starts at a typical Mexican pub called a cantina. Here, you'll enjoy a couple drinks (at your own expense) and get to know the rest of the travelers on your tour. Most importantly, though, your local Urban Adventures guide will give you a briefing of what's in store for the rest of the evening, including the basic rules of the eccentric lucha libre

As we drink, you'll learn about the story of tequila and mezcal, and your guide will get you up to date on Mexico's world famous party culture, from mariachis and jarochos to banda music.

To keep the excitement of the night going, we'll head to another cantina by the Mexican musician's square of Garibaldi, where we will experience Mexican Mariachi music and many other Mexican music bands. We'll enjoy the atmosphere of the square for about an hour before heading out to the arena to support the best "Luchadores" of the country.

Lucha libre (aka Mexican wrestling), is the second-most watched sport in Mexico, and hands down one of the most exciting things you can do while visiting Mexico City. For a truly local experience, we'll hop on the subway to the Arena Mexico to catch the fight. We'll get you good seats in the arena so you can truly live the experience and see the best matches of the night.

Immerse yourself in the crazy, exciting, energetic atmosphere of the arena and really get into it - scream and whistle whatever you want, while you experience unique and dramatic lucha libre moves like La Quebradora, El Martineta, La Segadora, and many others. You'll watch some of the best wrestlers in the country in an experience that will leave you awestruck for the two hours you spend at the lucha libre.

At the end of this unreal experience, you will have time to buy some souvenirs, like the mask of the best wrestler you saw in the show, so you can take some fun photos with your masks on.

After all the dancing, singing, drinking, and cheering, we'll be ready to go back to where it all began, our meeting point, where your guide will offer suggestions for where to continue the party. If you prefer to hit the hay, you can take a cab back to your hotel with the help of your local tour guide.

Additional information

Inclusions: Local bilingual tour guide, public transportation, visit to different cantinas, a souvenir wrestler mask and entrance fees to the lucha libre.

Exclusions: Items of a personal nature, all food and beverage, entrance fee to the clubs, tips/gratuities for the guide and waiters.

Dress standard: We recommend dressing conservatively as we will be visiting non-touristy areas. Long trousers or jeans and a t-shirt is recommended. Leave your valuables, such as passports and credit cards, in the hotel and bring a small amount of spending cash. During the rainy season (May to September) we recommend bringing a raincoat or umbrella.

Your Trip: For your Urban Adventure you will be in a small group of a maximum of 12 people

Confirmation of booking: This tour may be cancelled due to special events, so it is important to confirm your attendance prior to the tour in case of a last minute change. Please confirm the tour 24 hours before departure on this number +52 55 6391 5454.

Additional Information: The order of the activities varies on Sundays because we go to the Lucha Libre first. Please note that if the group size exceeds 8 persons then we will take private transport instead of public transport. IMPORTANT NOTE: No cameras or bottles are allowed in the arena. If you bring a camera you will have to leave it at the entrance in the camera storage. Pictures with cellphones are allowed without flash.

Child Policy: Children and teens under 18 years of age are not permitted on this tour.
