Local Impact: How you will help the local community by joining this tour:

- This tour helps preserve Cuban cultural heritage by visiting local businesses that specialize in Cuban products, economically impacting the neighbourhood and helping the Cuban community.
- Through this tour you are helping Urban Adventures work to preserve and celebrate Little Havana to ensure it remains a healthy, vital, and affordable urban neighborhood.
- Guillermina Hernandez is the matriarch of Los Pinarenos, the only open-air fruit market on Calle 8. For Guillermina, Little Havana has proven that immigrants can prosper from nothing, and you stop here for a juice and to listen to her vibrant stories.
- Domino Park is a sanctuary for Little Havana and its people and offers you a chance to interact with locals and experience Cuban culture in the neighborhood.
- Another example that helps preserve the cultural heritage is your last stop at Ball and Chain Bar, where tour groups usually dance salsa with their local guides and interact with the band and dancers.

Inclusions: Local English-speaking guide, coffee and juice samples, snacks, 1 mojito, access and entrance fees to galleries (if applicable).

Exclusions: Additional food and drinks, souvenirs and items of a personal nature, tips and gratuities for your guide.

Full Itinerary

Your Miami tour will begin in the heart of Miami's Cuban community. We'll check out some historic architectural beauties, as well as a few unique art collections.

Of course, you can't have a Little Havana tour without a true Cuban coffee in-hand, so we're taking you for the most delicious dose of caffeine you'll find this side of the Florida Straits. Cortadito is Cuban espresso, and we'll pair it with a typical Cuban pastry to give you the boost you need to keep moving on your Miami tour!

Next up, another Cuban culture classic: a visit to a classic cigar factory. Witness the art of cigar-rolling from the experts, and take in the one-of-a-kind aroma of the shop.

From there, we're off to visit one of the many locally owned art galleries in the neighborhood. Hear stories from first-generation immigrants from Cuba, and learn about the influence of Cuban art in Miami.

We'll see the important Bay of Pigs monument on route to a favorite local juice bar, where you'll get to quench your thirst with a dose of sugarcane or mango juice. We'll continue our stroll down SW 8th Street to experience the Caribbean flavour that fills the air, from the classic Domino Park where locals challenge one another to domino games, to the conga music that's played live in the streets.

Your Little Havana Adventure will end at one of the neighborhood's favorite watering holes for a taste of a classic mojito. You never know, the refreshing conclusion to this tour might give you the courage to salsa your way through the rest of your Miami vacation!
