Full Itinerary

We begin our Moscow tour beneath the city, exploring the underground palace of the Moscow Metro. From the Square of Revolution station, famous for its huge statues of soviet people (an armed soldier, a farmer with a rooster, a warrior, and more), we'll move onto some of the most significant stations, where impressive mosaics, columns, and chandeliers will boggle your eyes! Moreover, these stations reveal a big part of soviet reality — the walls depict plenty of propaganda, with party leaders looking down from images on the walls. Your local guide will share personal stories of his/her family from USSR times, giving you insight into Russia's complicated past and present.

Then we're coming back up to street level, where we'll take a break and refuel with some Russian fast food: traditional Russian pies and tea!

Throughout your Moscow tour, you'll learn curious facts from soviet history while seeing how Russia exists now, 25 years after the USSR.
