

Tour Name

Private New Orleans: French Quarter Food Tour

Tour City

New Orleans

Tour Snapshot

Dig into the rich and varied flavors that make New Orleans one of the USA's top foodie destinations on a private tour with a local guide. From the most famous local haunts to some delectable hidden gems, you'll leave with not only a full stomach and a smile, but a greater understanding of how New Orleans food, culture and history all go hand-in-hand.

This tour is priced for a minimum group size of two travellers. A solo traveller may still book this private experience but will be charged the base rate for two travellers.

Highlights

- Taste New Orleans' rich multicultural history through its mouth-watering cuisine
- Experience the flavors of America's oldest public market
- Appreciate New Orleans' clash of cultures with a cup of gumbo, the city's most controversial dish
- Discover why the local's favorite French doughnut is also the messiest

- Sample traditional delicacies, only available in Cajun country

Inclusions: Local English-speaking guide and food samples. Please note: food options and portion sizes will vary depending on the season and where we stop that day but the total amount of food included will be equal to a full meal.

Exclusions: Additional food and drink, souvenirs, tips/gratuities for your guide.

Schedule details

- Duration: 2.5 hours
- Meeting point:
Washington Artillery Park, 768 Decatur St, New Orleans, LA 70116

View on Google Maps
- Find the exact meeting point with what3words: ///fortunes.area.text
- Starting time: 10.30 AM
- Ending point:
A central location in the French Quarter near Jackson Square

Full Itinerary

Your private culinary tour of New Orleans starts where it all began — the banks of the Mississippi River. From here, you'll witness the lifeblood of this region which brought new cultures, new influences and new ingredients to the USA through its ports.

As they say, breakfast is the most important meal of the day. To wake up your taste buds, we'll indulge in New Orleans' most iconic breakfast pastry, the beignet. While it looks hard to pronounce, it's definitely not hard to love. Just make sure you watch the direction of the wind or else you might find yourself covered in powdered, sugary goodness!

Next we will head to The French Market, the site of America's oldest public market. Historically a place of diversity with products and people from all walks of life, today The French Market is a modern yet unique culinary space. We'll be sure to stop for a local bite and get to know some of the colorful personalities who call this city home.

From the French Market, you'll embark on the picturesque streets of the French Quarter where your guide will take you to some of their favorite palate-pleasing spots. You'll sample both a classic New Orleans dish, as well as a delicacy that you've probably never seen outside Cajun country. With an abundance of seafood, a fertile eco-system within the bayou and a history of spice trading, you'll begin to realize why everything here tastes so good.

Do you have an affinity for the spicier side? Then adopt the 'when-in-Rome' attitude and unleash some of Louisiana's hottest and tastiest sauces on your taste buds. This is the birthplace of Tabasco, after all.

On this tour, you'll have the chance to try a dish that sparks more controversy amongst chefs than any other in New Orleans: gumbo. Learn how hundreds of years of history has shaped this recipe and how it can vary from restaurant to restaurant.

Finally, we will finish off with a sweet treat made from locally grown sugarcane and the region's abundant pecans. No room for more? Don't worry, they don't call it the Big Easy for nothing. You can take your praline to-go and indulge when your sweet tooth kicks in.

Before you go, don't forget to ask your local guide for more tips on where to eat and what else to do during your stay in New Orleans.

(If you'd prefer to travel as part of a regular group experience, please book our French Quarter Food Group Tour.)

This tour is priced for a minimum group size of two travellers. A solo traveller may still book this private experience but will be charged the base rate for two travellers.

Additional information

Inclusions: Local English-speaking guide and food samples. Please note: food options and portion sizes will vary depending on the season and where we stop that day but the total amount of food included will be equal to a full meal.

Exclusions: Additional food and drink, souvenirs, tips/gratuities for your guide.

Confirmation of booking: If you have your voucher, your booking is confirmed. We'll see you at the start point. Get in touch if you have any concerns or require more information via the email address or phone number (business hours only) on your voucher.

Child Policy: This is a child-friendly tour. Children between the ages of 6 and 11 inclusively are permitted on this tour at the rate listed above. Please select 'child' above when booking. Children under the age of 6 are permitted to join this tour free of charge. Please inform us at the time of booking if you'll be bringing a child under the age of 6. You can do so in the special request box on the checkout page.

Dietary Notes

This tour features visits to establishments that are not always able to cater for vegetarians and other dietary requirements. Discounts are available and your guide can assist you with recommendations on where to purchase alternative diet-friendly food during the tour. Please contact us at info@neworleansurbanadventures.com for more information.

Local contact

Office phone number: +1 (504) 617 4391

Email address: info@neworleansurbanadventures.com