Full Itinerary

Discover what makes the Czech capital so magical on this relaxed full day tour of Prague, taking in the sights of the Old Town and the Lesser Town, all the way to Prague Castle. Get ready for a serious whistle stop Prague adventure with a boat ride included too!

Your tour begins from the Municipal House, the most beautiful Art Nouveau gem in Prague.

Next, we'll visit the stalls at the Havel'sky Market, which has been a favourite local market since 1232 - not a typo, it really has been around since the 13th century! Wander around the compact Old Town, winding through the narrow alleyways lined with Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque churches and palaces. Once in the Old Town Square, check the time at the famous clock, one of the most famous landmarks in Prague.

Next on your Prague city tour you'll stop at a traditional restaurant in the Lesser Town for a typical Czech meal, and after relaxing over lunch, head to the riverside and hop aboard a replica of a 19th-century sailboat for your cruise down the Vltava River. This is a great chance to take those perfect Prague photos to take home with you!

Experience this magical landscape of medieval-like scenery while sipping Czech beer, lemonade or a hot drink. Back on dry land, our walking tour of Prague then meanders across the bridge, stopping to stare up at its many towers and statues and to enjoy the sounds of the local artists and bands that often frequent the area. As you enter the Little Quarter, we'll jump aboard a local tram to take an uphill ride to Prague Castle. This is the world's largest castle complex and no visit to Prague is complete without wandering through its magnificent structures!

Here, we'll peek into the cathedral to view the most beautiful and astonishing cathedral in the country and learn how Gothic cathedrals were built in the 14th century by means of a medieval crane - and yes, cranes did exist all those years ago!

Your Prague introductory tour will end at Prague Castle, where you'll be free to further explore the sights. Don't forget to ask your local guide for tips on local restaurants to visit and secret local spots to call into.
