Full Itinerary

After meeting your friendly local guide in Náměstí Republiky Square, we'll head straight to our first stop of the day for an exceptional gastronomic experience in a bistro, which we are certain every foodie will appreciate. Would you like to taste sausages, roast meat or potato pancakes in their best form? This is the place to do it. Everything here is prepared according to the good old 1920s recipes, and your chosen dishes will be served to you directly on a tray with a slice of delish Czech dark bread. We'll wash it down with the most famous of Czech lagers or a homemade lemonade if you prefer.

After filling our bellies with some fine Czech food, it's time for some sightseeing. Prague is one of Europe's most beautiful cities, so you are in for a treat! As we walk you'll learn more about one of the most important historic areas of the city. We will pass through the New Town's art deco passages, making our way towards the magnificent Old Town. Before we reach the Old Town Square, we'll take you to a restaurant where you can taste the truest Czech cuisine at its finest. Thanks to our unique location in the heart of Europe, Czech food has been influenced by neighbouring European countries for thousands of years; at this stop you'll taste the results of this cultural blend on your plate!

As always, we have saved the best for last! We will take a seat in one of the Old Town's lesser known but fabulous venues to try something sweet and very, very Czech! No, it's not going to be the Chimney Cake that you see all around the city, but a dessert that is deeply associated with our childhood. There is no better way of ending our foodie adventure around the city, trust us!

After enjoying dessert, we'll head back towards the tram stop where our tour ends. Before you go, don't forget to tap up your local guide for tips on what else to see, do and most importantly, eat during your stay in picturesque Prague.

Please note that as all food is ordered in advance, we must be notified of any dietary requirements at the time of your booking. See Dietary Notes section below.
