Tour Snapshot

You know that feeling when you get home from a trip and realise all you brought back with you was a fridge magnet?! Join us on this unique shopping tour and not only will you pick up some one-of-a-kind souvenirs but you'll learn about Czech culture and people in the process. Your local guide will show you the best (often hidden) spots to buy authentic handmade products, explain the customs and beliefs behind them and introduce you to some multi-talented local artists and artisans. Let the shopping spree begin!

Highlights

- Learn about Czech culture and history by exploring the country's most popular arts, crafts and drink products
- Discover authentic, off-the-beaten-path shops where you'll meet local artists and discover handmade gifts and souvenirs to take home with you
- See some of Prague's most popular landmarks such as Lesser Town Square (Malostranské náměstí) and the Charles Bridge as you shop

- Support local businesses and artists who are single-handedly keeping the old Czech handicraft production traditions alive for the next generation
- Enjoy a glass of local wine, coffee or a glass of homemade lemonade with a delicious dessert at a cosy café

Local Impact: How you taking this tour will benefit the local community:

- All the stores we visit are 100% locally owned and run
- At least one store on our itinerary is dedicated to the preservation of locally-produced crafts
- Supporting locally-run businesses, such as glass maker and crystal store helps to preserve traditional crafts for the next generation

Inclusions: Local English-speaking guide, one beverage (beer, wine, soft drink or coffee), one local treat, one dessert, public transport during the tour and a map with personalised recommendations.

Exclusions: Additional drinks and snacks, items of personal nature, tips/gratuities for your guide.

Full Itinerary

Your shopping experience will begin in Lesser Town with a visit to one of the city's most famous shops, which offers stunning bohemian products that are closely connected to the old Slavic traditions. Here you will find everything from hand-painted Easter eggs and Christmas decorations, to wooden toys and ceramics. Your guide will point out the most traditional items, explain their story to you and help with suggestions in case you would like to buy something.

Next, our shopping adventure will take us off the beaten path to the beautiful courtyard of a catholic church, where we'll take a peak into a small glass shop, hidden in the basement. They specialise in glass jewellery and handmade glass beads. The staff are super friendly and are always happy to answer any questions you may have about their craft.

On our way to the next shop, we will pass by the colourful and well known Lennon Wall, crossing over the romantic Lovers' Bridge, until we reach Prague's iconic Charles Bridge. Local artists use this space to sell their treasures and they also have their own shop just under the bridge. We'll pop down to take a look at their latest creations and maybe chat to a few artists who will be more than pleased to show you their best works, from pottery products and paintings to marionettes and much more!

Our final stop will be a small crystal store where you will learn more about this traditional craft, and have the great opportunity to pick up some of the country's best crystal products. Our tour will end with a glass of wine or a beer and dessert at a cosy café next door.

Before you go, don't forget to tap up your guide for all the latest information on what to see, do and eat in picturesque Prague, if you haven't already.
