Full Itinerary

We begin our Santorini Walk, Drink, Eat Sunset walking tour from the historical female Monastery of Agios Nikolaos, located between the villages of Firostefani and Imerovigl, where you'll meet your local guide.

Through the windy cobblestone pathways totally perched on the edge of the caldera cliffs we'll move to our first stop where we'll sip a refreshing local liqueur and sample a mouthwatering sinful local sweet while enjoying superb views through the caldera and the Aegean Sea dotted with volcanic islands.

Then, eat your way through Firostefani's footpaths by tasting Santorini's most ancient fresh seafood dish, admire uninterrupted views and click amazing photos with the blue-domed Virgin Mary Orthodox church in the foreground, one of the perfect-picture spots of the island. Do not forget to post your once-in-life Instagram stories from here!

Continuing our walk through hidden back alleys and seizing the chance to capture countless of your best photos with the fabled Santorini sunset, we'll quench our thirst with an 'explosive' local craft beer, a Santorini exclusive beer that follows a local-original procedure in the making, accompanied with local seasonal tapas.

Later on, while strolling around the characteristic Aegean-styled whitewashed streets, you'll have the opportunity to wake up those taste buds with a tasty souvlaki, the most famous Greek street food, visit a food concept store with flavours and products from every corner of Greece, and enjoy unparalleled views from an off-the-tourist-radar spot with a glass of volcanic wine and a traditional Santorini seasonal dish.

This Santorini walking tour wouldn't be completed without participating at a 3-glasses local spirit tasting session including the absolute Top-3 Greek spirits and learning about the local spirits culture in Greece.

Our tour will come to an end in the buzzing Fira, Santorini's capital that offers a vast array of leisure options. From here, you can choose to continue your own personal exploration (your guide will be more than happy to advise you on your next move).
