Full Itinerary

Your evening tour of Vienna will begin with a look at the beautiful Karlskirche, considered to be the most outstanding baroque church in the city.

From here, we'll walk around the corner to reach our first stop, the colourful Naschmarkt, a popular spot for locals and tourists alike. With its well-stocked market and array of dining options, this is the place to go for all things food-related! Here we will treat you to a very special chocolate tasting. We're talking handmade, fair-trade delights produced by the eighth best chocolatier in the world! You are welcome fellow traveller, and you can thank us by giving us a 5-star review!

After soaking up the sights, smells and chocolate-y delights of the market, it's time to find out where the Viennese go for a good night out. Not far from Naschmarkt is the 4th District, the part of town that never sleeps! We'll take you to one of our favourite industrial chic-designed bars that boasts rotating DJs and killer cocktails!

Are you in the party mood yet?! Our next stop will be the 16th District, another buzzing square where you will find a cheerful mix of people enjoying the good life. Here, we'll stop to enjoy some tasty street food from a famous würstelstand, a Viennese food vendor well known for their hot dogs, sausages and other popular local dishes. As we scoff our snack we'll indulge in a spot of people-watching.

Neubau in the 7th district is one of our absolute favourite places in Vienna. We will show you why we love this charming area so much and why it's one of the city's leading creative centres, thanks to its cool, quirky stores, bars and restaurants.

Here we will stop and to round off a great night, we'll taste a delicious glass of Zweigelt, an Austrian red wine, at one of our favourite rooftop bars, admiring stunning views across the city.

Our tour ends here but before you go, don't forget to ask us for tips on where to go to continue your Best. Night. Ever!
