

Tour Name

The True Story of the Uzupis Republic

Tour City

Vilnius

Tour Snapshot

Explore the bohemian Republic of Užupis located in the old town of Vilnius, which declared its independence from the rest of the city in 1997. Home to artists and creative types, this unique place even has its own President, constitution and flags and can claim the Dalai Lama as one of its honorary residents. Get an introduction to this fabulously unique place from a local guide, see the Republic's main sights and discover its hidden secrets too (Food! Views! Beer!).

Full Itinerary

Your Republic of Užupis tour will begin with an introduction to the area, its history and how it came to be independent.

We will take a walk along the main streets, pointing out landmarks such as the Mermaid Statue and the Bronze Angel of Užupis and telling you about their origins.

We will enjoy the laidback atmosphere of the area, admiring colourful street art as your local guide escorts you towards hidden gems that most tourists wouldn't find on their own.

As we wander, your expert guide will talk about the Constitution of the Republic, its history, its meaning and who is responsible for enforcing it.

We'll also pop into boutique shops that offer a weird and wonderful variety of goods, fabulous for picking up that authentic and unique gift or souvenir to take home with you.

A Lithuanian beer stop at one of our favourite local joints is included too.

Your tour will end near one of the ten bridges that belong to this rare bohemian enclave. If you want to continue exploring, your guide can point you in the right direction or give you directions back to your accommodation. Whatever you do, don't forget to ask for more tips on what else to see, do and eat during your stay.
