Full Itinerary

Your private Georgetown journey begins with a walk along the C&O Canal. To keep those energy levels up, we're going to stop to try the best cupcakes in town. With some delectable flavors to choose from, we're excited to hear which ones do it for you!

Colorful colonial streets await as we take a stroll and listen to scintillating tales of spies, scandals and infamous murders that occurred right here in DC's most significant neighborhood. As we reach the main street, we'll stop and learn more about the city's oldest residence, which stands frozen in time, surrounded by the hustle and bustle of the capital's best high-end boutique shops and eateries.

From there we will make our way to see the booth where JFK proposed to Jackie Onassis while we savor a local DC brew at the oldest family-owned restaurant in Washington, DC.

We will continue to make our way back down to the waterfront, visiting some of our favorite restaurants to enjoy both savory and sweet treats. Our foodie stops will vary depending on what is available that day but we can promise a mouth-watering adventure that includes Austrian specialties, locally sourced ingredients and fresh bakes so beautiful you might have to pause to take a photo before you dig in.

After we have enjoyed plenty of food and fun, your local guide will be there to answer any questions you may still have and make recommendations, whether you are in town for one more day or another week, to help you make the most out of your stay in DC.

(If you'd prefer to travel as part of a regular group experience, please book our Georgetown Food & History group tour.)
