Full Itinerary

Some of the most iconic things in Havana are the classic cars. Here's your chance to experience that local legend and get to see Havana in style. On this classic car tour in Havana, you'll ride in - you guessed it - a classic 50s American convertible.

Head out through the streets of Havana, cruising your way through the suburbs of Centro Habana, Miramar, and Vedado, passing by points of interest such as the Malecon, the glamorous 5th Avenue in Miramar, the American "Special Interests" building, the Anti-Imperialist Square, Colon Cemetery, and the Revolution Square. We also visit the mysterious and hidden Havana forest.

And if you weren't feeling classy enough, after 90 minutes cruising in a '50's classic' this Havana tour ends on a high note – with a visit to the famous Salon de los Grandes bar, a visit to the fortification (built to guard Havana during the missile crisis), and finally walk through the garden terrace of the Hotel Nacional and a cocktail overlooking the Malecon at sunset. It's a truly iconic experience.
