

Tour Name

---

Private Siem Reap: Street Food by Night

Tour City

---

Siem Reap

Tour Snapshot

---

From a culture at least 3,000 years old, Khmer is one of the oldest cuisines in the world. Siem Reap's street food has also been influenced by Thai, Vietnamese, Chinese, and French techniques to form a style and flavour profile that is uniquely Cambodian. On this private night-time food tour, we'll hop on local transport and travel away from the tourist trail to sample authentic Siem Reap snacks, desserts, and Khmer cuisine staples. Delicious, authentic, and something you don't want to miss.

This tour is priced for a minimum group size of two travellers. A solo traveller may still book this private experience but will be charged the base rate for two travellers.

Full Itinerary

---

It's time for an epic local food adventure. Your private authentic Siem Reap evening starts off with a ride on a moto-remork, an articulated moto-rickshaw that's commonly seen on Siem Reap's streets. We'll zip you through the streets, off the tourist trail and straight into local street heaven.

Your food-loving local guide will uncover hidden local street food treasures and beloved recommendations of local snacks, such as yellow bean cake or Khmer rice cake. Our food mission continues with a tasting of seasonal fruits that are grown in and around Siem Reap, like the purple kiwi fruit-like dragon fruit, mango, tiny (but sweet!) pineapple. You'll also see the spices and other ingredients featured in local food, and hear about the traditional remedies and medicine.

Next, on this private tour, we'll hit up a local picnic spot where stalls are set up in the early evening selling a multitude of interesting snacks. As we wander around, you might see fried tarantulas, which are usually enjoyed with a cold beer; fried crickets, which taste like potato chips; barbecued meat on skewers; Khmer Fried Chicken; green mango served with chili and salt; ducks eggs; barbecued corn; and deliciously sweet purple mangosteen.

Hopefully you still have room for even more amazing Cambodian food, because our next stop is a local restaurant to sample some tasty local delicacies, before finishing at a dessert stall where fruit shakes, fruit with sweeten condensed milk and baked puddings are the specialty.

After dinner, you'll have the option to return to your hotel or end our Siem Reap food tour at Pub Street – a convenient spot that's perfect for exploring local bar and café life. Alternatively, our local guide will be happy to provide some less touristy recommendations for a great night out.

(If you'd prefer to travel as part of a regular group experience, please book our Siem Ream Street Food by Night group tour.)
